RENDEZVOUS

AT RICHMOND HILL RETIREMENT RESIDENCE

COMPLIMENTARY IN-PERSON EVENTS FOR ACTIVE SENIORS WITHIN THE COMMUNITY

Salsa Dance Classes for Seniors (mobility friendly)

Friday, June 9th and 16th, 2023 2:00-3:00 pm

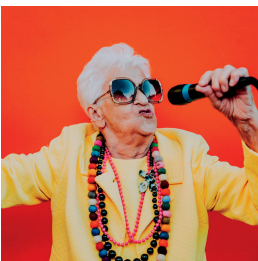

We're thrilled to announce the return of Dance instructor Katya Kuznetsova from the Dance Together Project. This time, she will be leading mobility-friendly Salsa Dance lessons exclusively for our residents and community. Don't miss the opportunity to put on your dancing shoes again and join us for an invigorating hour of exercise and rhythmic moves.

Take Me Out To The Ball Game!

Thursday, June 15, 2023 1:00 pm

Attention, gentlemen! This exclusive event is just for you! You are cordially invited to a remarkable Father's Day celebration, regardless of whether you are a father or not. Join us as we screen a thrilling Jays Game in our private Theatre. But wait, there's more! By attending, you also stand a chance to win two tickets to a game between the Blue Jays and the Arizona Diamondbacks at the iconic Rogers Centre in July. Wear your Jays Gear for a chance to win a door prize!

Sip & Sing Social with Cocktails!

Wednesday, June 21, 2023 3:00-4:00 pm

Join us in commemorating the 11th Anniversary of the Richmond Hill Retirement Residence with a Sip & Sing Social. Experience an afternoon filled with delightful melodies, joyful camaraderie, and a celebration you won't want to miss!

Special Guest Speaker: Shirlea Cook, Transition Care Specialist

Wednesday, June 28, 2023 2:00-3:00 pm

To assist us in planning for our future care and understanding the psychosocial advantages of group living, we are honored to have Shirley Cook, the Founder and President of Care for Life Support Services, join us. Shirley will shed light on the various options available for overall well-being and guide us in creating personalized care plans. Whether you have inquiries about transitioning from home to retirement or long-term care, Shirlea is here to address all your questions.
