Reunited Under One Roof

Some reunions happen by chance. Catherine and Maria were once neighbours, and now they are again — this time at The Roxborough. Proof that the right community has a way of bringing the right people together.

“Tom and I would like to thank you for the care received while we stayed at the Roxborough. We needed a safe haven for a period of time and certainly found it at the Roxborough. The accommodation was comfortable, nicely furnished with a well equipped, small kitchen. All members of the staff were very helpful and always friendly, creating a great atmosphere to live in. All the meals were very good and we enjoyed our meals in the lovely dining room. When speaking to our friends, we have told them about the wonderful place we stayed when we needed emergency accommodations. We will certainly recommend it to our friends. Our regards to everyone at The Roxborough.”

Sincerely, Tom and Kate Taylor
