

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

Wednesday, September 30th

Honours residential school survivors, their families, and communities, and to remember the children who never returned home. Please wear orange today to signify "Every Child Matters".

INSPIRED SENIOR LIVING WITH

